Re: ABA International Liaison Appointment

Dear Aaron:

It is my pleasure to appoint you as the Liaison of the ABA Section of International Law ("ABA International") to Test Committee for the term running from August 10, 2008 to August 4, 2009. As Liaison, you will be ABA International's ambassador to Test Committee. Thank you for accepting this important role and agreeing to be a key member of our leadership team.

As you would expect, performance of your Liaison responsibilities is crucial for ABA International in order to continue, and build, its prominence in international law and practice. You will be working with the Section's Liaison Officer, External Relations Committee, and all relevant ABA International committees. Among other tasks, you are expected to provide quarterly reports to relevant Section committees and its top leadership. I have enclosed guidance on being an effective ABA International Liaison.

As a Liaison, you will be contributing to and encouraging the discussion and examination of critical international legal issues.

As an ABA International leader, we hope that you will participate in our seasonal meetings. Please mark your calendar for the following ABA International meetings (leaders' expected attendance is noted in italics):

- 2008 Leadership Retreat, August 6-7 (Atlantic City, NJ) and ABA Annual Meeting, August 8-11 (New York, NY)
- ABA International Fall 2008 Meeting, September 24-27 (
